Christmas Tree.

There will be a Christmas tree at the Christian Church in this place on Saturday night, and all who desire to donate to their dear ones are invited to place their presents on the tree and make the occasion one long to be remembered. This is an occasion when those who are in affluence should remember those in adverse circumstances and make them happy by giving useful presents. Above all, remember the poor, no matter whether they are akin or no. Remember the many little children to whom this will be no more than an ordinary occasion unless those in good circumstances can aid them. Make the little ones happy by donating of your abundance. Or, if you have not that abundance, surely you can make one soul happy and be the happier for having done so. Indeed, a Christmas tree without charity for the poor displayed upon its every branch fails of its purpose. Let every child in town, whose parents are well to do, put something upon the tree for some child who is not so fortunate, and the example of the children may well be followed by older ones. Briefly, let every soul who reads this make up their minds to make some one happy on that day. Committees from among those who are in good circumstances should be formed to hunt out those who are not so fortunate and give them good cheer. Let us all make the effort to render some one else as happy as within our power.

Fight Will Be Bitter.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continental recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. H. Beall, of Beall, Miss., has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvements came at once, and four bottles entirely cured her." Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

WANTED.—A woman to cook, wash and iron for family of two people. Will give $1.50 per week to one who fills the bill. Apply at this office.

MRS. MARCUM'S SUIT

Against Alex. and Jim Hargis for Damages Now on Trial at Winchester.

The following is a brief review of the proceedings in the Marcum-Hargis case, now on trial at Winchester last week and up to the present time:

On Monday morning, Dec. 12, A. F. Byrd stated the case for the plaintiff, and in the afternoon J. M. Stevenson did the same thing for the defendants.

Tuesday morning Mrs. J. B. Marcum, the widow, went on the witness stand and told of warnings Mr. Marcum had received.

The next witness was Capt. B. J. Ewen, whose testimony was pretty much the same as in the Jett-White trial.

John E. Patrick and J. J. C. Back next testified to the same facts as given in said trial.

On Wednesday morning Henry B. Noble took the stand and said that he saw Tom White fire the second shot into Marcum's body and then walk over to Hargis Bros.' store, and that a short time afterward he (Noble) went into the office of the store and found James Hargis, Ed Callahan and Tom White there, and he heard White say, "Well, Ed, what are you and Jim going to do about that money?"

Ruck Cottongane was the next witness whose testimony related mostly to French.

Mrs. Rebecca Bailey, mother of Moses Feltner, also testified as to what French had said to her.

The testimony brought out in the trial of the Marcum damage suit Friday was the most sensational yet given by the witnesses to the testimony of Robert Chaney and James Mann, they were approached by James Hargis with a proposition to kill Marcum, but both of them declined the alleged offer.

Chaney stated that he had been sent for by Hargis and after going to his private office on the second floor of the Hargis store, Judge Hargis had offered him $500 if he would kill Marcum, Hargis to furnish the gun and the assistance of Curtis Jett.

James Mann said that Judge Hargis had told him that he controlled the courts of Breathitt county and that if he would kill Marcum the charge of murder which was then resting against him would be dismissed at the next term of court. These offers were made, the witnesses declared, a short time before the assassination of Marcum by Curtis Jett and Tom White. Mann stated that after he had refused the alleged offer made by Hargis, the latter sent for him again and told him that he had arranged to have Marcum killed, but that he wanted him to shadow Marcum for a few days until the work had been accomplished.

W. P. Hampton, cashier of the Winchester Bank, told of carrying a message to Mose Feltner from B. F. French, to the effect that French and Alex Hargis wanted to see Feltner at the bank that night. Mr. Hampton also stated that the four defendants in this case were depositors in the bank. He says that several days ago Felix Feltner had deposited between $900 and $1,000 in the bank. Felix Feltner is the man Ruck Cottongane says was engaged by French to spirit the witnesses away last week. Mr. Hampton also reluctantly stated that Ed Callahan had drawn $500 from the bank the latter part of last week and had it charged to the account of one of the Hargis brothers. This was the day it was alleged Callahan went to Cincinnati.

Attorneys for the plaintiff made the avowal that Jett said to Mrs. Johnson in answer to a question as to who killed her brother, "I fired the shot, but Hargis' money did it." Witness testified that Marcum did not go out on the streets of Jackson except when accompanied by members of his family.

A motion from the defense in the Marcum suit to dismiss the jury was overruled. The famous Feltner affidavit was read in court. The attorneys for the plaintiff made sensational allegations concerning an alleged plan to buy off witnesses.

Ned Marcum said he knew that his brother made a public appeal to the officials of Breathitt county to protect him until he could wind up his business affairs and get away, but that defendants made no effort to protect him from assassination.

Henry Hurst was called for cross-examination, and asked when it was that he had the conversation with Alex Hargis in which Hargis told him that if he continued to board at Marcum's he would have to quit working for them. Witness said it occurred more than thirteen years ago. That he had worked for the Hargises at a time since then. The court ruled out all the testimony relating to this testimony.

Mrs. F. N. Day requests us to say to the ladies of this vicinity that for two weeks all winter goods, including jackets, cloaks and wraps of all kinds, ladies' ready-made skirts, hats, etc., etc., will be sold at a reduction of 33 1/3 per cent. Skirts, formerly $1.50, will be sold at $1.00, and all other winter goods in same proportion. Every one who avails themselves of this opportunity to buy will get a bargain.

PROFIT

The matter of feed is of tremendous importance to the farmer. Wrong feeding is loss. Right feeding is profit.

The up-to-date farmer knows what to feed his cows to get the most milk, his pigs to get the most pork, his hens to get the most eggs. Science.

But how about the children? Are they fed according to science, a bone food if bones are soft and undeveloped, a flesh and muscle food if they are thin and weak and a blood food if there is anemia?

Scott's Emulsion is a mixed food; the Cod Liver Oil in it makes flesh, blood and muscle, the Lime and Soda make bone and brain. It is the standard scientific food for delicate children.

Send for free sample.
Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

Inadvertently the insurance ad of our young friend, C. B. Rose, of Jackson, has been conspicuous by its absence in THE HERALD for a few weeks past, and we hope every man in the land who wants to insure will today see said ad and write him at once for rates.

Nothing is so hard as the start. When you once begin to save money you will find it comparatively easy to continue. Open an account with the Provident Savings Bank and Trust Co., of Cincinnati, Ohio, and watch it grow. It will be handy for you in time of need.

Mizpah Lodge, No. 501, will set a dinner on St. John's Day, the 27th inst., for members of the lodge and any visiting brethren who may be present. To the end that it may be a success, every member's wife will contribute her mite. Any of the children of the members will be welcome.

John G. Shuler, one of the proprietors of Swango Spring, was on Monday arraigned for trial before Chairman Center, of the Board of Town Trustees, on the charge of assault and battery, his victim being Miss Stella Short, who last year had charge of the dormitory. Shuler confessed, and a jury of six fixed his punishment at $2.00 and costs. Miss Short at once filed an affidavit asking for a new trial, setting forth the fact that the County Attorney was not present, etc., and Judge Center granted it, setting the time at 10 a. m. Saturday. We refrain from comment until after the trial for obvious reasons, but shall say something then.

Natural gas is now supplying a majority of the people of our town with both fuel and lights, and by this time next week the supply will be adequate for all purposes. Up to the present time those using gas have been supplied from well No. 2, which is less than half the strength of No. 1, and in its use has been a kind of experiment. The main well, however, was cased on Tuesday and the regulator will be attached before this time next week, when Hazel Green will be as well, or better supplied, than any other town in the United States. Gas makes a beautiful fire and a brilliant white, steady light, and all who are using it are exceedingly well pleased with it. Come to our town to live and see what a pleasure it is to use this new fuel and light.

Christmas Cheer.
In the goodness of his heart, Col. Frank Trimble, of Memphis, Tenn., last week sent to his brother, Uncle Pres Trimble, of our town, a ten dollar bill to spend for his Christmas cheer. He did the same for his sister, Aunt Louisa Wilson, the venerable wife of Big John Wilson, and both of the recipients are glad to own such a brother. Uncle Pres is the oldest of the family living, and Frank Trimble, the donor, is the youngest. But in this world's goods he is decidedly the best off of the trio, at least. He is a prosperous real estate merchant of Memphis, and is himself about 65 years of age.

A Double Wedding.
On Sunday night last Hazel Green was for the nonce a veritable Gretna Green of two couples at least, who arrived from West Liberty on matrimony bent. The high contracting parties were W. R. Foreman and Miss Eula Cartmell, and Samuel R. Spencer and Miss Nettie Neal. The ceremony making them man and wife was performed at the residence of the contracting minister, Prof. W. H. Cord.

Mr. Foreman is a native of Montgomery county, this State, but has been located near West Liberty ever since the oil excitement opened in this country, in which business he is engaged as a driller, and Mr. Spencer, who is engaged in the same business in the same capacity hails from Parkersburg, W. Va. Both of the brides are natives of West Liberty and highly connected. THE HERALD joins the many friends of all parties in wishing them a long and prosperous journey down the pathway of time.

LIVER TROUBLES

"I find Thedford's Black-Draught a good medicine for liver disease. It cured my own after he had spent two weeks with doctors. It is all the medicine I take."—MRS. CAROLINE MARTIN, Parkersburg, W. Va.

If your liver does not act regularly go to your druggist and secure a package of Thedford's Black-Draught and take a dose tonight. This great family medicine frees the constipated bowels, stirs up the torpid liver and causes a healthy secretion of bile.

Thedford's Black-Draught will cleanse the bowels of impurities and strengthen the kidneys. A torpid liver invites colds, biliousness, chills and fever and all manner of sickness and contagion. Weak kidneys result in Bright's disease which claims as many victims as consumption. A 25-cent package of Thedford's Black-Draught should always be kept in the house.

"I used Thedford's Black-Draught for liver and kidney complaints and found nothing to equal it."—WILLIAM COFFMAN, Marshfield, Ill.

PEKIN, KY., Dec. 5, 1904.

Spencer Cooper, Hazel Green, Ky:

DEAR SIR:—You will find enclosed an order to pay on my subscription to THE HERALD. I have been out in the interests of my candidacy for Superintendent, and have neglected sending in my subscription. I received a majority of over 500 votes. My friends in and around Hazel Green will be glad to learn of my success. It seems wonderful that I won such a victory. I never spent a cent of money nor used a drop of whisky, and if my friends used it they did so without my consent. Regards to Mrs. Cooper. Respectfully yours,
NANNIE E. FIELDS.

A Frightened Horse.

Running like mad down the street dumping the occupants, or a hundred other accidents, are every day occurrences. It behooves everybody to have a reliable salve handy and there's none as good as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Burns, Cuts, Sores, Eczema and Piles disappear quickly under its soothing effect. 25c., at all druggists.

Loman's rig for drilling wells passed through here Tuesday, en route to the Campton oil fields, where he has engaged to drill another well. The people most interested in the development of the oil field in and about Campton are doing all they can to keep dark the fact that it is today the most promising territory yet discovered in Kentucky, and for no other purpose than to secure more territory.

A clerk in the Hotel Stratford, New York, was arrested in connection with the theft of $30,000 worth of diamonds from a guest.

A Record of Marvelous Accomplishment.

Established February 19, 1904, The Kentucky Farmer and Breeder, of Lexington, has, within a few months' time, become concededly the best weekly paper of its kind in America, and has secured a paid-in-advance circulation of over 13,000 copies.

Among the contributors to its columns on agricultural topics are many of the best-posted men in America. Mr. H. F. Hillenmyer, whose reputation as a nurseryman is national, conducts each week a department of answers to inquiries, in which he gives from his vast store of knowledge, experience and study, his views and advice on any subject pertaining to the orchard, lawn or garden, about which information may be desired. Every issue of The Kentucky Farmer and Breeder contains the most pertinent news and the most timely advice for farmers and stock raisers of every sort.

As a medium for all forms of farm and live stock advertising (for both of which it offers special discounts), it has no rival in the state. More than half its circulation is in Kentucky, and for the most part among people who are interested in and able to buy either farms or good stock.

By special arrangement we are able to offer for a limited time

THE KENTUCKY FARMER AND BREEDER

AND

THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD

BOTH FOR 1 YEAR AT $2.00

THE PRICE OF THE KENTUCKY FARMER AND BREEDER ALONE.

It is the most valuable weekly paper in America for the farmers of Kentucky to take. Published at Lexington, "the hub of the horse world," and the center of the state's agricultural interests, it has the opportunity to obtain, and it never fails to publish live, up-to-date, fresh news and valuable feature matter which no other paper contains.
